Parish Mission Statement

CALLED TO BE THE BODY OF CHRIST, WE ARE HERE TO SHARE GOD'S LOVE
WITH ALL PEOPLE,
THROUGH OUTREACH AND SERVICE, IN OUR COMMUNITY AND THE WORLD
THROUGH THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Church Website www.kildwick.org.uk

The Vicar's letter.....

Dear friends,

Alleluia! Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Our joyful celebration of Easter continues and we continue to sing our Alleluias as we proclaim the good news of the resurrection of Jesus. We are an 'Easter people'; our faith is centred in a person who died and rose again and wants us to share in that risen life.

The Easter season continues until the Day of Pentecost (Sunday 27th May) when we celebrate God's gift of the Holy Spirit. The preceding nine days (after Ascension Day until Pentecost) are days of prayer and preparation for this celebration of the outpouring of the Spirit. During this time the Church prays 'Come, Holy Spirit, renew your whole creation'.

The Easter season ends with a strong reminder that God's people are called to take the message of the gospel out into the world with confidence and show people that the Kingdom of God is among them.

It is the Kingdom of God and its values that we are called to proclaim. Unfortunately even the Church too often fails to proclaim what should be seen as true gospel values. The challenge is to recognise that these values are often radically different from the values of the world.

The Archbishop of Canterbury spoke recently in response to the debate continuing within the Anglican Communion about questions of authority, biblical interpretation and human sexuality. There is real danger of schism as various groups make claims that they know what God is saying and that they understand the 'plain meaning of scripture'.

The Archbishop said, "Give up the struggle to be innocent and the hope that God will proclaim that you were right and everyone else wrong. Simply ask for whatever healing it is that you need, whatever grace and hope you need to be free, then step towards your neighbour".

Grace and humility are amongst the values of the Kingdom of God; the recognition that our knowledge and understanding is only ever partial and invites us to change and grow in wisdom.

Richard Harris, retired Bishop of Oxford, responding to the Archbishop's words points out that "One of the threads running through [Rowan Williams'] writing is the idea that true religion always leads one to question oneself, rather than make claims over others. Jesus is not a possession or a badge of superiority, but the one before whom you stand, in gentle self-questioning".

Many people struggle to make sense of God and the claims of the Christian faith. Given the 'shop window' that the Church so often presents I am not surprised by this. Thankfully God is bigger than the Church and it to God revealed most wonderfully in the death and resurrection of Jesus that we must look. We must look for the signs of grace and humility in the people around us and know that there we see God.

A happy and blessed Easter to you.

Ministry Development Team

There have been a number of previous articles during the past 18 months or so introducing the idea of Ministry Development Teams. Across the diocese parishes are forming new teams, comprising the incumbent and a number of congregation members, to 'act as a focus and a catalyst for mission and ministry in the local church'.

Earlier in the year members of the regular congregation were invited to nominate persons to serve on the initial MDT. After consideration by the PCC and then the Standing Committee with guidance from John Daniels, the Diocesan Ministry Development Officer six people were invited to become members of the MDT.

The team will therefore be: Christine Anderton, Lesley Bannister, Eleanor Eastwood, Robin Figg, Kevin Feather, Janet Swain and Sandie Walton. Working alongside the team will be a Companion nominated by the diocese to help and guide the team in their work. Our Companion will be the Revd Tracy Rishton, Missioner for the Southern Area of South Craven Deanery and Resident Priest of Cross Roads.

During the first year the MDT will conduct a review of the current mission and ministry of the parish and propose a model which will support the mission and ministry with effect from the APCM 2008.

The review of the current mission and ministry will include:

- ◇ reflection on the Growing Healthy Churches exercise carried out December 2005 to February 2006;
- ◇ consultation with the six present PCC Advisory Groups;
- ◇ consultation with the leaders/convenors of church activities;
- ◇ consultation with other members of the church community and wider local church as deemed appropriate.

In response to the review the MDT will:

- ◇ identify strengths and weaknesses in the current mission and ministry;
- ◇ propose priority areas for the future mission and ministry;
- ◇ propose a revised structure of working/advisory groups/teams to support and enable the future mission and ministry;
- ◇ begin to identify future training needs for individuals/groups.

This is an exciting time in the life of the local church and the MDT has an important part to play in helping to shape the future mission and ministry. Reports of their work will be given from time to time.

PRAYERS FOR THE PARISH

The next monthly meeting to pray for the parish will take place on Tuesday 1st May in the Parish Rooms from 7.30pm until 8.15pm. For information contact Robin Figg, 633307.

Christian Aid Week goes Gold and Green

Christian Aid Week (13-19 May), is 50 this year. To mark its golden jubilee it is encouraging people to plant trees in support of its overseas work on climate change projects.

Christian Aid works with 700 local organisations across 50 developing countries. It trains people to deal with the effects of climate change and prepares them for the threat of natural disasters. These local organisations also work on HIV, training and education, health and sanitation and peace and reconciliation.

Alex Jones, Area Coordinator for Christian Aid, says: "This is the week the Church comes into its own. At least 15,000 volunteers across Yorkshire will put themselves out to hold fundraising events and collections to help some of the poorest people around the world. Thank you Bradford Diocese!"

Barbara Judd, Christian Aid Week organiser in Shipley, says: "It was great when I collected from people from other backgrounds because I could tell them how Christian Aid helps people in their country - whatever their religion".

This year Christian Aid is encouraging people to plant trees in their gardens, community spaces and churchyards as a way of reflecting on the impact deforestation and climate change is having on poor communities around the world.

Diarmuid Gavin, garden designer and star of the BBC's Home Front, said: "I travelled to Kenya with Christian Aid last year and saw the devastating impact climate change is having on small-scale farmers who rely on the land.

"It's inspiring to see how Christian Aid partners are teaching some of the world's poorest people new agricultural techniques to enable them to make the best use of the little water they have to grow food.

"We plant trees for ornamental reasons, but in developing countries, such as Kenya, that have been heavily deforested, they take on much greater significance. Trees not only encourage the rains but help prevent soil erosion that can lead to fatal mudslides."

Ten things you need to know about Christian Aid

1. We believe in life before death -we are passionate out rooting out poverty.
 2. We fund long-term development work, respond to emergencies, and challenge the unjust systems that keep and keep people poor.

5. We believe in helping people to find their own lasting solutions to poverty.

BIBLE HISTORY

This is part 8 in a series of articles written by Michael Baumber

The 'Bad king' Manasseh

Hezekiah was succeeded by his son, Manasseh, whose reign is described in 2 Kings 21. We are told he rebuilt the high places, reintroduced the worship of Baal and made an Asherah pole as Ahab had done. Not content with that he also worshipped all the starry hosts. He practised divination and consulted mediums and spiritualists. He even sacrificed his own son in the fire. Was Manasseh as bad as all that? He may have been but there are features about his reign which troubled the biblical writers. No actual historical events are described suggesting that the country enjoyed a long period of peace which is never a bad thing. He reigned no less than 55 years and died in his bed which also implies a stable political regime. 55 years was the longest reign by far of any king of either Israel or Judah. If he was as bad as all that surely God would have struck him down early, perhaps having him murdered like the awful Sennacherib. Why didn't he?

The Kings solution is to produce a 'prophecy' that the evil Manasseh has done will not be visited on him but, as with Hezekiah's backslidings, will be stored up to be the prime cause of the Babylonian Captivity. Kings was probably written during the captivity but when the priests of the second temple came to read it after the return to Judea they clearly did not find the reasoning very convincing. If he reigned 55 years he must have reformed they thought. So their version in 2 Chronicles 33 has him arrested by the Assyrian army commanders and thrown into prison where he prayed to the Lord to secure his release. The prayer was answered. He was allowed to return to Jerusalem where he got rid of all the foreign gods and told the people to sacrifice to the Lord their God.

What neither set of biblical writers will accept is that during Manasseh's time the power of the Assyrian Empire was at its height under its two greatest warrior kings, Esarhaddon and Assurbanipal. Manasseh tolerated foreign gods because the Assyrians made him. They disliked the worship of the one God, Jahweh, because it had become a hostile nationalist cult. They would never have arrested him for allowing a multi-cultural mix and then release him in order to reinstate Jahweh. Manasseh lasted so long because he did what he was told. So far from rebelling against Assyria the wall carvings show that Judah sent a contingent of soldiers with the Assyrian army which plundered Egypt in 663 BC.

The unpleasant device of sacrificing a son to appease the gods makes its appearance in 2 Kings on a number of occasions. Ahaz was accused of the same crime (see Chapter 16 v3.) In Kings Manasseh sacrifices a son, singular, in Chronicles it is sons, plural. All we can say is that the practice did not prevent Hezekiah succeeding his father, Ahaz or Amon succeeding his father, Manasseh.

Next month: 'Good' king Josiah

The actual bicentenary date of the parliamentary Act to abolish the Transatlantic Slave Trade in the British Colonies – 25 March – is now behind us, but the work goes on!

Remember

- the horrors of the Transatlantic Slave Trade
- the abolitionists – black, white, male, female, enslaved and free
- the role of the Church in both slavery and abolition

Reflect

- on the consequences of the Transatlantic Slave Trade and slavery:
 - ◊ on racism, underdevelopment, commerce

Respond

- to the legacies of the Transatlantic Slave Trade and slavery
- by taking action to end modern forms of slavery
- by working to effect healing and reconciliation

The following meditation has been prepared to link with Christian Aid Week (13-19 May).

Blessed are the poor (Matthew 5.1-3)

This is the beginning of a most bizarre award ceremony. The best English equivalent of 'blessed' in this context is 'congratulations to...!' The prizes, however, go to a set of people who are usually passed by when rewards are given. Jesus congratulates them because they are people who are in the process of waking up to the truth about themselves, even though it is a painful business.

Jesus honours people who are bereft of answers to the world's most intractable questions; people who want to be part of an eternal, perfect, heavenly Kingdom, but haven't got a clue how they can earn their place. Be happy, says Jesus, because it is when you realise that you can do nothing to take you to heaven that God steps in and does all it takes. The people striving and straining, trying to buy their way in by being good, are missing the point. Those who know they cannot earn God's approval and turn instead to begging for it are the ones who will inherit the Kingdom.

May God the provider, without whom we have nothing, bless the poor by providing for their true needs,
 and bless the rich by rewarding their true needs,
 so that the poor and rich alike may inherit the Kingdom of God.

NEWS FROM THE CROSS HILLS & DISTRICT FELLOWSHIP OF CHURCHES

Exploration Into God: Exploring a new framework for Christian believing and living

A special one day conference is taking place on Saturday 5th May from 9.30am until 4.00pm at South Craven Baptist Church, led by the Revd Adrian Smith. The day will inspire and encourage thinking in new ways to understand our faith and live out our Christian commitment.

Adrian Smith is a catholic priest with an open-minded approach to thinking about God and life (the universe and all that). He served as a missionary in Africa for many years and has written over 14 books of theology. He approaches his subject not from the perspective of intellectual academics but from the perspective of prayerful spirituality, seeking to make relevant sense of our experience of God. Linking spirituality with clear thinking he facilitates, in an accessible way, the journey of exploring different ways of seeing God and how such faith impacts on how we live our lives.

Cost is £15 (concessions £10) to include lunch.

Meet our new CMS Mission Partners

Last month we introduced our new CMS Mission Partners Tim and Kate and their children, Rebekah, James and Grace. The Lee family have been living in Manila, Philippines since 2003.

We are very pleased that we will have a chance to meet the Lee family on Tuesday 19th June when they visit Kildwick during their brief time back in the UK.

Whilst details of the visit have yet to be confirmed, we will probably have a bring & share supper in the parish rooms beginning at 7.00pm. During the evening Tim & Kate will give an illustrated talk about their work in Manila, especially with the Jigsaw Kids Ministry, which works with children and families at risk from poverty and abuse.

Please pray for the Lee family and all those who serve as missionaries overseas. Give thanks for their generous service in response to God's call.

One of the greatest treasures the Orthodox Church has given us is the Jesus Prayer.

'Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.'

We can use it for meditation.

Lord Jesus Christ: - Master, Teacher, Healer, who came to tell us and show us what God is like. Jesus, that human bit of God, who lived on earth and is now with the Father interceding for us....

Son of God: - just as the centurion recognised the divinity of Jesus so we worship him and glorify his holy name. He has shown how much God loves us and we respond in utter amazement....

have mercy : - by the grace of God his forgiveness is freely offered unconditionally. This was shown most clearly by the father receiving his prodigal son home and reinstating to his former position....

me, a sinner: - it is vital for us that we make good use of this forgiveness. We have to understand how wonderful it is that we can make fresh starts over and over again. But we do have to allow Jesus to transform our lives by concentrating on the good things we should be doing, which may exclude some of the bad....

* * * * *

The orthodox church have also given us the book The Way of the Pilgrim in which the pilgrim explores the art of continuous prayer by repeating the prayer many thousands of times, breathing in on the first part and out on the second. Ultimately his controlled breathing puts him continually in the presence of God.

Compiled by Peter Bannister

The Lang Kirk 21 Prayer

Gracious God, we thank you for the resources you give us in the service of your mission and ministry; guide us as we seek to care for and develop the building we have inherited from those who have served you in years past, that it will continue to speak to those who seek you today; may the Lang Kirk continue to proclaim your presence in the world and draw people to know and to love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The meeting was chaired by Counc G McKinney Chairman. Six members of the council were present & CDC & NYCC Representatives.

Seven members of the public came along to express their concerns at the withdrawal of the bus service into Kildwick/Farnhill.

The Parish Council have wrote letters to the Keighley & District Bus Service and NYCC Passenger Transport to ask why neither the Parish Council or NYCC District Representative Counc M Wheeler were informed of the decision and asked them to reconsider the decision to withdraw the service.

Keighley & District replied stating that NYCC were given the statuory 56 days notice of the change. Their reasons for the withdrawal of the main Keighley to Skipton service into Kildwick from the 23rd April is due to the extremely low use of the service & increased traffic delays on the route. They say only 64 customers boarded the 140 journeys that pass through Kildwick each week (excluding schoolchildren as their services are not affected)

An alternative limited service will be provided by the Lothersdale to Skipton service which is supported by NYCC, but this service is not adequate for the needs of the villagers.

NYCC District Counc. M Wheeler met with an officer from NYCC Passenger Transport in Farnhill to illustrate the problems facing the people of Kildwick/Farnhill. Counc M Wheeler and NYCC Passenger Transport have written to Keighley & District and asked them to suspend the proposed changes & consider modifications to the service.

It is hoped that further information will be available in time for the Annual Parish Meeting. The NYCC Passenger Transport Officer has been invited to the meeting to answer questions and Counc M Wheeler will give any updates on the situation.

Two members of the Public expressed an interest in becoming a Councillor. A decision will be made at the Parish Council meeting in May.

A seat was chosen for the Play Area at a cost of £396.00 plus Vat & Carriage, Clerk to place the order. It was decided that the wording for the notice in the Play Area should include the Postcode. Counc J Waring to place the order. The placque has arrived and will be put up when the seat arrives.

Counc I Fulton was asked not to carry out any further work on the Play Area till it was discussed at the next meeting. Meanwhile a safety fence is to be placed around the work already carried out.

Clerk to report to NYCC that Street Light No 28 across from the car park has still not been repaired and that Light No 46 on Starkey Lane is out. Clerk to ask NYCC to remove the old concrete poles for lights No's 19 & 20.

A letter received fro NYCC Highways stated that the A629 will be detrunked & transferred to the Highway Authority from the 1st April 2007. They state the budget for this length of Highway has been determined by Highways Agency & there are no proposals to resurface the road.

The Parish Council are to express their extreme disappointment at this decision and ask for some other solutioun to the noise levels :- tree screening or applying a speed limit to the section between Kildwick & Cononley.

Clerk to write to Highways to ask them to commission the study of the access to & from Bus Stops for both Buses & pedestrians.

NY Police, Fire Safety Officer, Highways, NYCC & CDC Representatives have confirmed that they will be attending the Annual Parish Meeting. The notice for the meeting was signed by the Chairman.

The Draft for Focus on Farnhill was agreed on. Clerk to order 280 copies which will be delivered round by the Councillors

A discussion took place on whether cyclists are allowed on the towpath of the Canal between Riddlesden & Skipton and whether a license is required to do so. Clerk to make enquiries to British Waterways.

A questionnaire was completed by the Parish Council on Summary of the Draft Rights of Way Improvement Plan for North Yorkshire.

THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING WILL BE HELD ON THE 26TH APRIL & ALL MEMBERS OF THE VILLAGE ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND

DATE OF NEXT MEETING OF THE PARISH COUNCIL 3RD MAY 2007

Lang Kirk 21 Church Building Development Project

The Lang Kirk 21 project continues to move forward towards the next important stage – the application to the Chancellor of the Diocese for a faculty (which in lay terms means an application for planning permission).

We were very pleased to receive the formal Recommendation of the scheme from the Diocesan Advisory Committee. The DAC agreed that our scheme will provide an imaginative, sympathetic development of our church building in response to the recognised needs of the present and future user groups of the building.

Following the DAC meetings we have also recently had a visit from members of the Council for the Care of Churches and we are arranging visits from English Heritage, the Society for the Preservation of Ancient Buildings and the Victorian Society. All these august bodies are what are known as “interested parties” who can comment on the proposed re-ordering of a church and listed building. We think they too will be supportive.

However, we also want to seek the support of the wider local community. We want to ensure our church building continues to serve as an active “centre of community” in the future so we want everyone to know what changes we are proposing.

We are therefore going to hold two “open” evenings, on Monday 21st and Tuesday 22nd May between 7 pm and 9 pm when we hope as many of you as possible will come to learn about the scheme.

During the evenings members of our Building Development Group will be available to walk round the church with you, pointing out exactly what is proposed and where and hopefully this will be more helpful to those who are not familiar with reading the architect's drawings.

It is very important and a fundamental part of the project that we all feel to be involved and understand what is being proposed so we hope that many of you will come along. Please tell your friends and neighbours and bring them along too.

We are confident that this exciting project will ensure the Lang Kirk continues to serve the mission and ministry of God's Church in the future as it has done faithfully during the past 700 years!

At the presentation to the DAC the Vicar quoted a former Dean of Arches (senior Chancellor in the Church of England), Sir John Owen, who said, 'A church is a house of God and a place of worship. It does not belong to the conservationists, to the state or to the congregation, but to God'.

So, come along and find out how the Lang Kirk of Craven will continue to serve the needs of God's people in the 21st century.

What's in a name? Last month the chairman of the Bronte Society spoke, on both Radio Leeds and the 'You and Yours' programme on Radio 4, about how the Bronte name is being used to promote various products and companies. What is quite ironic is the fact that actually Mr Bronte, after coming to England from Ireland, decided to create a new version of the family name Brunty. Bronte is both the name of a town in Sicily and the Greek name for thunder but perhaps he chose it because of its association with Lord Nelson, a hero at the time- so after adding a diaresis the Bronte name was born.

I suppose we appreciate the full power of our names today as we are warned about identity theft, something quite unheard of in times past. We know that one careless moment and, with our name, some numbers, our address and a credit card, someone can gain access to our personal details and actually have considerable power over our lives. It is hard to appreciate, in these modern times, what names once meant. They could tell us who people were. Smith, Baker, Taylor, Potter, Farmer, Cooper would all carry with them the occupations of parents and forebears. Names like Faith, Charity and Grace would embody the expectations and hopes parents had for their children. I have always thought the traditional names of Native Americans quite fascinating- names like Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull, Pony that Walks, Running Bear and Little Owl whilst Wind Maiden, Meadow Lark, Whispering Grass all have pulchritude of their own.

In European culture it is a tradition to name children after someone in the family and many of us will be named after relatives. I always feel a little sorry for someone who has to add the word senior or junior or major or minor after their names as I am sure confusion abounds but not nearly as much, perhaps, as for the five sons of George Foreman who are apparently all called George. Hopefully they will have different second names to answer to! Some people name their children after people they admire and in a recent poll Cruz, the name chosen by the Beckhams for their youngest son, has risen recently in popularity.

We know that Mary and Joseph took Jesus to Jerusalem to receive His name, the name that the angel had said would be His.

Jesus
Jesus

Charles Wesley writing in the 1700s penned a wonderful hymn about the name of Jesus which has stamped itself deeply into Christians the world over. 'Jesus! The name high over all'. Wesley's words may seem a little old fashioned today as he talks about 'breaking prisoners' fetters' and in the last verse he uses the words 'latest breath'- meaning not the most recent breath taken, but the very final breath taken before death.

There is a touching story linked with this great hymn. In the 19th century it was not unusual for children to receive horrific injuries caused by burning - having conducted very many funeral services after such accidents this led to the Revd. Bronte's fear of fires and resulted in him allowing no curtains and very little carpet in the parsonage and him writing many letters with regard to the safety of the material used in children's clothes. One such poor little girl was taken into hospital in London. She had learnt Wesley's hymn at Sunday school and loved to sing it. There was no hope for the little sufferer and on the last night of her life all was quiet in the communal ward where she lay. Suddenly the silence was broken by her sweet voice singing her favourite hymn and the others in the room heard the words:-

'Happy, if with my latest breath I may but gasp His name,
Preach Him to all and cry in death –behold, behold the Lamb.

Soon the voice was hushed in death but not before all in the ward had heard that wonderful message.

There are many hymns associated with the name of Jesus, such as -'At the name of Jesus every knee shall bow' and 'Jesus Name above all names, beautiful Saviour, glorious Lord', but perhaps the best quote of all is from Paul's letter to the Philippians when he wrote:

'Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the name that is above every name,
That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.'

When the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost, there was a sound like the blowing of a violent wind.

Make wild wind sounds: Cut a drinking straw in half, flatten at one end and cut into a shape. Put this end between your lips and blow! Cut straws to different lengths and see what sounds they can make.

Jesus did not leave us on our own after he had gone to heaven to be with God his Father. He sent the Holy Spirit to be with us and to help us...

The Holy Spirit helps us to know we belong to God

The Holy Spirit teaches us about God and helps us to understand

The Holy Spirit lives with us and he lives in us!

The Holy Spirit helps us when we are weak and gives us words to pray

The Holy Spirit speaks God's word to us

The Holy Spirit helps us to tell others about Jesus
